

Greenfoot, BlueJ, NetBeans: Graduating to a Professional IDE

Davin McCall, Fabio Hedayioglu
University of Kent

University of
Kent

Greenfoot

- Greenfoot is an environment specialized for graphical computer programs, games and simulations.
- Widely used as a tool for teaching Java to kids at secondary school.

Resources:

- Webpage: <http://www.greenfoot.org/door>
- Using Greenfoot scenarios in NetBeans:
http://www.greenfoot.org/doc/running\_on\_netbeans
- The Joy of Code: video tutorials for Greenfoot:
<https://www.youtube.com/user/18km/videos>

BlueJ

- BlueJ is a Java Integrated Development Environment designed for secondary school/university students. BlueJ provides an easy-to-use teaching environment that helps first year students learn Java.
- Widely used as a tool for teaching java to students at first year university level.

Resources:

- Webpage: <http://bluej.org/>
- Objects First with Java: <http://www.bluej.org/objects-first/>
- Tutorial Videos on Objects First with Java book chapters:
<https://www.youtube.com/user/objectsfirstwithjava>

University of
Kent

